An evening tinged with cloak-and-dagger adventure should attract a good turnout Thursday at the St. Paul College club when members of St. Paul branch, American Association of University Women, have their annual couples' dinner.

Speaker is Dr. Rodney C. Loehr, professor of history at the University of Minnesota and chairman of the university's ROTC committee. Dr. Loehr, who served as historical officer for the joint chiefs of staff in World war II and after the war became commanding officer of the 483d strategic intelligence detachment, is going to talk about the central intelligence agency (CIA) and its work.

PEOPLE
Here & There

Dr. Loehr's address at 8:15 p. m. will be preceded by a social hour at 6:30 p. m. and dinner at 7:30 p. m. Because it is the next celebration on the calendar, St. Patrick's day will be the basis for decorations on the dinner tables, which will be set up in the new Great hall, dedicated two weeks ago.

Mrs. Robert C. Anderson and Mrs. James E. Phillips have charge of dinner reservations. Mrs. Warren Waleen is general chairman of a committee composed of Mmes. Carl Miller, Sydney Schmuckler, Robert Lauch, Harold Krinkie, John Davison, Harry Falk, Donald Hughes, Roger Hooper and Warren Gustason.

Members of the committee and their husbands will serve as hosts, together with Mrs. Leonard J. Rogge, branch president, and her husband; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wright, and Mr. and Mrs. William Wetzel.
